

Important: All documents submitted to UEWM as part of the application becomes the property of the university. This is a common practice among schools in the U.S. Students should always request more than two sets of their transcripts for other future needs.

Admission to the DAOM Program requires a Master's degree or equivalent in Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine from an ACAOM accredited institution, an ACAOM candidate institution, or its equivalent. The applicant must possess a California acupuncture license before entering the doctoral clinical training. All applicants are encouraged to read the School Performance Fact Sheet and catalog prior to signing the enrollment agreement.

All documents are required to be in English and submitted prior to admission, with the exception of the Official Transcript, Official TOEFL score and a State License to Practice Acupuncture AND Oriental Medicine

- Application Form
- Non-refundable Application Fee: $60
- Official Transcript(s) (Both in your native language and English) (Foreign transcripts need to be evaluated) *
(No later than the end of the first semester)
- Copy of a Proof of Residency (e.g. Passport, Green Card etc.)
- Two Passport-size Photos
- A Resume (in English)
- Two Letters of Recommendation (in English)
- A statement of purpose explaining your desire to undertake graduate studies at this point in your life. (in English)
- Signed Student Enrollment Agreement
- Official TOEFL score (before beginning the clinical experience.) **
- A State License to Practice Acupuncture AND Oriental Medicine in CA or other state/territory (before entering the doctoral clinical training).

FEDERAL FINANCIAL AID**

Students will not be able to request Federal Financial Aid until all required admission documents are submitted.

* Official transcripts must be submitted with the original envelopes in which they were sent. Transcripts from colleges/universities outside of the U.S. must be evaluated for degree, course by course and GPA by an U.S. based official evaluation organization that is NACES Certified. A list of current NACES members is available at <http://www.naces.org/members.html>

 For applicants whose education is received not in the English language, a minimum score of 45, a minimum speaking exam score of 18 and a minimum listening exam score of 15 on the TOEFL iBT test is required in order to be admitted to the Chinese-language program ; a minimum TOEFL score of 61, a minimum speaking exam score of 26 and a minimum listening exam score of 22 on the TOEFL iBT test is required in order to be admitted to the English-language program.

 Student is not required to take the TOEFL test if you have earned a minimum of 60 semester units (90 quarter units) from a recognized institution of higher learning where the language of instruction is English.

Please Send Official Documents to:

Admissions Office

University of East West Medicine- 595 Lawrence Expressway, Sunnyvale, CA 94085